

'IN-RUNNING' BETTING AVAILABLE AT THE M RESORT SPA CASINO FOR THE PREAKNESS STAKES

Cantor Gaming's 'in-running' a huge hit for March Madness, NBA Playoffs and the Kentucky Derby

LAS VEGAS – (May 15, 2009) – Cantor Gaming, an affiliate of global financial services company Cantor Fitzgerald, today announced that 'in-running' betting – wagering on live sporting events throughout the event – will be available at the M Resort's state-of-the-art Race and Sports Book during this Saturday's Preakness Stakes. The M Resort, which opened in Las Vegas on March 1, became the first resort-casino in the country to offer in-running betting during the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

Following the success of in-running betting during March Madness, Cantor Gaming expanded its in-running sports offerings, giving customers the opportunity to wager on the NBA Playoffs as well as the Kentucky Derby. Kentucky Derby bettors were able to bet on the favorite, Friesen Fire, against the field and on a selected trifecta of favorites against the field, up until the 16th pole of the final stretch.

"Cantor Gaming has been a fantastic partner for the M Resort. Their commitment to developing and delivering state-of-the-art technology has put the M Resort's Race & Sports Book at the top of the list for sports bettors," said Joseph A. Magliarditi, M Resort Executive Vice President and COO.

Lee Amaitis, President of Cantor Gaming commented, "Customers are really embracing 'in-running.' We've seen tremendous interest at the M's Sports Book with guests wanting to experience it for themselves. We could not be more pleased and look forward to offering guests the chance to place live bets during the Preakness this Saturday."

Later this year Cantor Gaming expects to extend in-running wagering to more sporting and racing events including The Belmont Stakes, Major League Baseball, football and Grand Slam tennis Tournaments. Casino guests can enter the action when they wish, throughout the event, giving them the ability to hedge against bets placed at the beginning of an event.

Anyone interested in in-running can go to the M Resort, open an account and either place bets from terminals in the Race and Sports Book or check out a portable betting tablet to carry with them throughout the sports book.
